

Mark Ogier joined ContraVest in 1995 as the Property Management and Construction Coordinator. He became the Director of Property Management in 1997, and an Executive Vice President in 2006. Currently he is a Principal in the three ContraVest vertically integrated companies: ContraVest Development Partners, ContraVest Builders and ContraVest Management Company. As President of ContraVest Development Partners, Ogier has overall responsibility for the operations and strategic direction of the development program. He is responsible for site acquisition, community development, equity investor relations and portfolio performance. Over the years, Ogier has gained valuable insight into the needs of various ownership structures including REIT's, TIC's, life insurance companies, pension funds and private investors.

In addition to his duties with ContraVest, in an effort to stay in the forefront of the issues facing the apartment industry, Ogier has served as a delegate to the National Apartment Association (NAA), is a member of the Florida Apartment Association (FAA) Hall of Fame and Past President and Executive Committee member for the Apartment Association of Greater Orlando (AAGO). He currently serves as Past President of the AAGO Foundation, the charitable arm of the Association and is Chairman of the Developer's Council.

Ogier received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics in 1990 from the University of Colorado. His military experience included four years of service in the United States Army as a Field Artillery Officer and General's Aide in Germany. He is a Certified Property Manager (CPM) through the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) and a Licensed Real Estate Broker in Florida.
